

Member Benefits

APS was founded in 1988 to promote, protect and advance scientific psychology at the national and international levels. Today, APS is one of the fastest-growing, most respected and diverse organizations in the field world-wide.

AS A MEMBER OF APS, YOU WILL NOT ONLY BE VOICING YOUR COMMITMENT TO PSYCHOLOGICAL SCIENCE, BUT YOU WILL ALSO RECEIVE THE FOLLOWING BENEFITS:

APS JOURNALS — STAY UP-TO-DATE ON THE LATEST SCIENTIFIC PSYCHOLOGICAL RESEARCH AND TRENDS IN THE FIELD WITH SUBSCRIPTIONS* TO ALL FOUR APS JOURNALS.

- Psychological Science (monthly)
- Current Directions in Psychological Science (bi-monthly)
- Psychological Science in the Public Interest (three issues per year)
- Perspectives on Psychological Science (bi-monthly)

* APS Members have the option of receiving any of the journals in print version. All Members enjoy the benefits of full online access to our journals, whether or not they choose to receive them print. As an additional courtesy, all Members receive “This Week in Psychological Science (TWiPS)”, a weekly e-mail with links to Psychological Science articles available online in advance of printing.

OBSERVER — APS’s monthly news publication provides the latest news and views in scientific psychology, including essays and articles by and about leaders in our field.

ANNUAL CONVENTION — Our 24th Annual Convention in Chicago, IL, May 24-28, 2012 features Keynote Speaker Lawrence D. Bobo, a Bring-the-Family Address by Barry Schwartz, Douglas Medin’s Presidential Symposium, and theme programs titled Biology Begins in Social Context; Disaster, Response and Recovery and; Music, Mind and Brain. Thousands of scientists and educators will be there, making this meeting a unique opportunity to connect with old and new colleagues from around the world.

APS WIKIPEDIA INITIATIVE (APSWI) - The goal of the APSWI is to improve the quality and quantity of the information about psychological science presented in Wikipedia. You, as a member of APS, are encouraged to participate by adding new entries and enhancing existing ones with more complete and accurate information with references. This is an especially exciting initiative for teachers and students who can make updating or creating Wikipedia entries part of coursework.

APS POSTDOC EXCHANGE - This is a brand new and free (both to search and place) resource of postdoctoral opportunities across psychological science and related disciplines around the world. The idea here is to provide our members with a direct connection between those searching for postdoctoral positions and those offering them.

PUBLIC AFFAIRS — Our Public Affairs program covers everything from traditional press outreach to social networking platforms, to ensure that the cutting edge science from our field and our members is widely reported in both scientific and mainstream media across the globe. Annually, research from APS journals appear in more than 4,000 print and web publications worldwide.

ADVOCACY — Your voice will be heard through our tireless government relations team, who work with the United States Congress and federal research agencies to increase support for behavioral science research and training.

APS ONLINE — The APS website serves as an online forum for psychological science -- for Members, the public, and the press. From the homepage, you can see new articles updated daily, post comments on blogs, read the latest issue of Observer, and so much more.

TEACHING — Expand your knowledge and skills through APS’s teaching initiatives.

- APS-STP Teaching Institute: This day-long program, sponsored jointly with the Society for the Teaching of Psychology (STP), precedes the APS Annual Convention and offers informative talks and practical advice from experts on the teaching of psychology.
- Teaching of Psychology: APS Members can take advantage of a special subscription rate of $25 for the quarterly journal Teaching of Psychology (regular rate $136) and receive a complimentary one-year membership in the Society for the Teaching of Psychology.
- Teaching Tips: The Teaching Tips columns, featured in the APS Observer, provide the latest in practical advice on the teaching of psychology.
- Teaching Fund: The APS Fund for Teaching and Public Understanding of Psychological Science awards small grants to enhance education in psychological science for students and the public.

THE APS LIBRARY — APS publishes several book series, which are available to Members at discounted prices.

- Modern Pioneers in Psychological Science (published in partnership with Psychology Press)
- Lessons Learned: Practical Advice for the Teaching of Psychology
- Voices of Experience: Memorable Talks From the National Institute on the Teaching of Psychology (NITOP)
