

Cat People are Smarter than Dog People, Study Says

June 10, 2014

CNET:

I fear I may have found a more emotive subject than Apple vs. Samsung. Or Apple vs. Microsoft. Or just Apple. For one of the world's top academic institutions, Carroll University in Wisconsin, decided to tread into that cauldron of high dudgeon: cats vs. dogs. I understand that, though some people have pets of both types, many take sides on this issue.

I can now say, with hand raised as if under oath, that those who say dogs make for the better pets are plainly lacking in intelligence.
