

Should you ditch online dating?

April 05, 2013

Prevention:

First, the good news: Looking for love (or lust) online has finally shed its negative stigma, becoming the most common strategy for singles looking to meet someone new.

Now the bad news: Dating sites' so-called "matching algorithms" may actually make it harder to find Mr. Right, according to a study published in Psychological Science in the Public Interest.

But does that mean you should swear off dating sites for good?
