

U.S. Office of Evaluation Sciences Fellowship Opportunity

December 07, 2022

Applications are open for a one-year fellowship opportunity with the Office of Evaluation Sciences (OES). OES, housed in the U.S. General Services Administration, is a team of interdisciplinary researchers that apply behavioral insights and evidence to provide recommendations to improve government function and evaluate uses of administrative data. OES has worked on key challenges in the U.S. including opioid prescribing, healthcare access for Veterans, reducing energy use and costs, and improving government efficiency.
