

Michigan Summer Program in Cognition & Early Development

February 02, 2021

The Michigan Summer Program in Cognition & Early Development is seeking students to participate in research on the cognitive and social foundations of children's behavior. The 10-week program will run remotely from June 1st to August 6th, 2021.

Application Deadline: March 1st, 2021

For more information, see the MSPICED website.