Membership Categories

APS memberships run for one year beginning on January 1 of the current year and ending on December 31 of that same year, except in cases where multiple years have been purchased.

Member: APS membership applicants must possess a doctoral degree in psychology (or a related field) from an accredited institution or be able to show evidence of sustained contributions to scientific psychology.

Lifetime Member: Applicants who qualify as Members may elect to pay a one-time dues fee for lifetime membership in APS.

First-Year PhD: This early-career discount is for members who are joining or renewing within one year of earning their PhD. This discount category may only be used for one membership year.

Postdoc: Members who have earned their PhD and are currently engaged in postdoctoral research are eligible for this reduced-rate membership.

Retired: Members who are retired or over 65 may join/renew for this membership.

Graduate Student Affiliate: Applicant has received a bachelor’s degree (or equivalent) and is (or expects to be) enrolled as a full-time student pursuing an advanced degree (master’s or doctorate) in psychology or any related field at an accredited degree-granting institution.

Undergraduate Student Affiliate: To qualify, the applicant must be currently enrolled as a full-time student pursuing an associate or bachelor’s degree (or equivalent) in psychology or any related field at an accredited degree-granting institution. Candidates who join/renew upon completion of their bachelor’s degree program must join as Graduate Student Affiliates.

Member Acknowledgments

Membership Directory
The APS Member Directory is provided for the convenience of Members. The information provided may not be used for solicitations, broadcast emails or calls, or any similar activities. The directory may not be reproduced, copied or entered into an electronic database of any kind. APS reserves the right to refuse or revoke membership to anyone who violates these terms. In order to have access to the membership directory, you must agree to the terms of use and agree to be listed in the directory on page 1 of this form.

Email News & Research Benefits
As part of your membership benefits, you will receive APS email news and research briefs automatically. You can update your email preferences at any time online or by contacting APS at member@psychologicalscience.org or +1 202.293.9300.

Mailing Address Data Use
The contact information you provide is used to send orders and APS information. On an optional basis, we occasionally share members’ mailing addresses with third-party companies, however we do not divulge any other information (i.e., a user’s e-mail address, telephone number, or birth date) to outside companies. You may request that your information not be provided to third-parties on page 1 of this form.

APS Journals
You will automatically have online access to all six APS journals. With the exception of Retired, Undergraduate Student, and Spouse Members, you may also elect to receive print issues at no cost on page 1 of this form.

Observer Magazine
You will automatically receive online access AND print delivery of Observer, published ten times per year. If you choose, you may elect to receive online access only on page 1 of this form.

Demographic Information

APS recognizes and embraces the need for diverse backgrounds in its membership and in psychological science as a field. By telling us a little about your background, you enable APS to better track and foster diversity.

Privacy Statement

APS values the privacy of its Members. You can find our full privacy policy at www.psychologicalscience.org/privacy-policy. If you have any questions about this policy, or any other privacy concerns, please email us at privacy@psychologicalscience.org.
